CAUSE CELEBRE.

AN ATTEMPT TO KIDNAP PRISONER BEALL.

Deputy Sheriff VanVoorhees White Trying to Robbie Beall is Himself Gobbled. Sheriff Painter to the Rescue.

The efforts to gain possession of the person of F. M. Beall, charged with the murder of F. R. McKennon in front of Lillie's drug store last spring, took a decidedly new turn Wednesday night when Under Sheriff VanVoorhees, in trying to place Beall under his wing at Oklahoma City, was himself arrested for contempt of Judge Scott's court. On Wednesday morning County Attorney Huston and Sheriff Painter went to Oklahoma City armed with legal documents and in the district court entered a nolle prosequere to the present indictment in order to have Beall dismissed, so that he could be rearrested on a new indictment for murder returned against him by the grand jury.

The grounds upon which Mr. Huston asked for the dismissal were that the first indictment was fatally defective, and in addition that Judge Henry Scott could not try the case as he had been an attorney for prisoner Beall prior to his promotion to the associate judgeship.

Judge Scott refused to enter the nolle on the grounds that no copy of the former indictment was presented by Mr. Huston so that he—the judge—had no evidence before him that the indictment was defective; and furthermore, if he, by reason of having been one of Beall's attorneys, could not sit as judge in the trial of the case, neither was he competent to decide this matter—so he would allow matters to remain as they are until either Judge Dale or Judge Burford could take his place as trial judge. Judge Scott remarked at the same time that he had made arrangements with Judge Dale to change districts with him a couple of weeks and that it was probable Beall would be tried by Judge Dale. Judge Reddick represented Beall, and according to all statements made a strong showing for his client.

Attorney Huston, naturally, was displeased with the result of his visit to Oklahoma City and he returned home. Going to the district clerk's office he caused a capias to be issued for Beall. This was placed in the hands of Under Sheriff VanVoorhees, with instructions to secure the body of Prisoner Beall. The officer boarded the train and repaired to Oklahoma City with the avowed purpose of kidnapping Beall. Upon arriving he had no sooner begun to put in motion his object when he was arrested for contempt of court. There the matter hangs. Sheriff Painter rushed down to Oklahoma City yesterday afternoon to attempt to straighten out matters, and it is very probable that he is sharing the same fate as his worthy deputy.

Beall's case was transferred to the Third district from this court several months ago on a change of venue. Subsequently the prisoner was admitted to bail by Judge Clark in the sum of $15,000. Beall's attorneys have thoroughly mapped out their line of defense and the prisoner himself says he feels certain of acquittal if a fair trial is accorded him. At present he is practicing law in Oklahoma City with his father, Colonel Fred Beall.

Whether the prisoner will be brought here on the new indictment is as yet an unknown matter. The return of Sheriff Painter and his deputy, VanVoorhees, is patiently awaited.

SWARTZ IS HELD.

He is Charged With Strangling to Death W. W. Klaus.

Commissioner Goodrich yesterday bound over to district court, Fred S. Swartz on the charge of murdering W. W. Klaus in the strip. Welsh and Morris, the two men arrested with Swartz were released, but were placed under bonds to appear as witnesses at the trial of the case. The evidence went to show that Swartz maneuvered to put Klaus out of the way in order to get his claim. Klaus was a man of family and was found about two weeks after the opening with a handkerchief tied around his neck. His death was due to strangulation. In the preliminary examination S. H. Harris, attorney of Pecos, appeared for the prosecution and Geo. Gardner for the defense.

The Jay-Schnell Case.
The jury in the Jay-Schnell case is long-winded and the members thereof are building reputations as stayers. After being out sixteen hours the jury brought a verdict into the district court at 5:30 last evening. The verdict gave the plaintiff $175 damages and contained several provisional clauses. The court decided that the verdict was too general and sent the jury out again to agree on specific findings one way or the other. A final verdict is expected this morning.

A Bandit in Town.
Texas Newcomb, a member of the Dalton gang, was in the city last evening, but the officers didn't catch on to his presence. The bandit surrounded a "Missouri straight" at the Reaves' saloon and then mounted his horse and rode away. He was recognized by several citizens who know all the members of the Dalton banditti.

Soldiers' Reunion a Fizzle.
The soldiers' reunion, billed to be held in this city on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, was a fizzle. Only about a dozen battle-scarred veterans from a distance were in the city, and all efforts to drum up a crowd proved futile. The strip opening and other matters tended to throw water on the meeting.

PANCOAST'S SCALP.

IT CAME NEAR DANGLING ON THE COUNCIL STRING.

Meeting of the City Salons—Councilman E. J. Wilbur Sworn In—Public Improvements—Routine Matters.

The city council met in regular session last evening with Mayor McElhinney in the chair and the following members present: Berkeley, Wilbur, Lynds, Kaylor, Taylor, Blass, Richmond of the Third and Richmond of the Fourth.

Councilman E. T. Wilbur was sworn in from the Second ward to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mr. Filson.

The special committee on investigation asked for further time in which to make a report. The request was granted.

Gray Bros. asked for the privilege of putting in a large cesspool on Vine street between Oklahoma and Harrison avenues. This was referred to committee on public health.

The city clerk was instructed to prepare a financial statement of the city to be presented at the next meeting.

The committee on public improvements was instructed to have the water pipes covered with dirt where needed.

During the session Councilman Blass sprung a rather mild sensation by preferring charges against City Attorney Pancoast and asking that he be removed for cause. In his statement Mr. Blass said that Attorney Pancoast has been absent from the city and is thereby neglecting his duties. A lawyer named J. A. Baker was present and defended Mr. Pancoast in a tidy speech, in which he said that such action by the council was ill timed in that the charges were oral and that Mr. Pancoast had no chance to defend himself. The council took a vote on the matter and decided to make the charges in writing, when a trial will be held.

SAW THE RUN.

Councilman Inspect the Workings of the Local Fire Department.

Following the adjournment of the city council last evening the members of that august body, at the solicitation of Councilman and Fire Chief Taylor, visited the fire building.

The department was thoroughly inspected and each and every member expressed himself as highly pleased with the apparatus and its workings. The trained truck horses showed themselves off in great shape and the truck men and horses were given a brisk run.

The fire department is in tip-top shape and the citizens of Guthrie have cause to feel at once safe and proud. To Chief Taylor more than mild praise is due for the efficient fire service.

An Interesting Case.

One of the first cases tried before Commissioner Thompson at this place was of rather curious nature. The prisoner was a Seminole who spoke no language except his tribal tongue. No interpreter could be found who spoke Seminole and English, but one could speak Chickasaw and English and another who spoke Seminole and Chickasaw were present, and the examination was conducted through the tedious process of translating the prisoner's answers from the Seminole into the Chickasaw language and into English—Purcell Register.
